Convincing Testimony

'Given by Many Norway People.'

Experiences told by Norway people—Those who have had weak kidneys—Who used Doan's Kidney Pills—Who found the remedy effective—Such statements prove merit. You must doubt an utter stranger. Here's Norway proof. Verify it. Read. Investigate. Be convinced. You'll find why Norway folks believe in Doan's.

"It gives me pleasure to verify my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills," said Mrs. Persis A. Walker, of Cottage St., Norway. "They have done me a lot of good. I got Doan's Kidney Pills when I was feeling miserable from kidney disorders. This remedy helped me in a short time and I continued its use until I was well."

A Wonderful Healing Influence In

Kidney Troubles.

A year and a half ago I was taken with a severe attack of kidney trouble that pained me to such an extent that morphine had to be given me. Was attended by a doctor who pronounced it as Lithia Water. I took Lithia Water and Tablets for some time and received no relief from them. I stopped taking medicines for some time, later having some Swamp-Root in the house I decided to try it and felt much relieved. While taking the second bottle commenced to pass gravel in urine until I had passed in all at least a half dozen or more and in all have taken one bottle and a half and feel very grateful to Swamp-Root.

Yours very truly,
H. W. SPINKS,

They each left tokens of remembrance, such as cut flowers, there being violets, pinks, roses and some plants and candy. Refreshments were served. Her two birthday cakes with "Grandma" and the dates "1898-1915" upon it. All joined in wishing her many more pleasant days.

Mad at Paint.
25c a gallon for paint is about $2.50 on the average job, and lots of men waited last year for their paint to come; they got mad; but they didn't pay it. There are times to get mad and refuse to pay; but when one's property needs painting is no time to get mad and not paint.

Besides it costs more to get mad and wait than to paint.

Getting mad doesn't do any good to your property; paint does it good by keeping out water; no water no rot; no rot is more than enough to make a man liberal towards his painter and paint.

Paint costs not a cent. All the paint in the world, so long as it keeps out water, costs not a cent.

PRATT, GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury Decided Case in Less Than an Hour—Trial Took Three Days—Court House Thronged Each Day.

Among the other witnesses for the State was deputy sheriff John Titus, who told of finding the body under the Pratt barn and told the stories Pratt told him in regard to the strange man he met at Bethel and the one they took into the automobile on the way from Bethel, and the drinking of the liquor.

Sheriff W. O. Frothingham gave a similar account as Mr. Titus except the finding of the other clothing in the house and the revolver.

Dr. Marshall P. Gram of Bowdoin testified to receiving a bundle from W. O. Frothingham, and Dr. F. N. Whittier of Bowdoin testified to the analyzing the blood stains on the sheets.

Lester Pratt, a brother of Prescott Pratt, testified that his brother called at his place with a Ford car that he had purchased in Portland, that he had $255 which he got gambling in Portland.

Eva Dudley testified that she knew Pratt, went to the fair with him and that later he gave her the revolver. Her mother, Mrs. Marion Hersey, said she remembered his giving her the revolver.

John Pierce, one of South Paris' jewellers told of Pratt's coming to his place with a watch and remarked that he had running a car, and inferred that he had a new job and a good one driving for a Portland man.

Woodbury Thayer told of meeting Pratt and going to Auburn with him where he traded the car giving $20 to boot.

Dwight Edwards of Auburn told of the transaction with a man by the name of "Cash."

Willard G. Pratt of Norway said that he had occasion on the 27th of September to go to the lower part of the village and met Prescott Pratt who told him he had arrived from Berlin at 3 o'clock.

Orrin Pratt of South Paris told of seeing Pratt with a Ford car one Sunday in September, and he showed him $80. Pratt told him he was working for a Delano of Portland.

W. A. Shurtleff told of seeing Pratt with a large roll of bills last fall.

George F. Eastman told of his buying a suit of clothes.

Byron Tuttle told of his being at the hotel at different times about Sept. 23 to see a girl who worked there.

Harry Holden told of his working for him in September, and his finishing work there about Sept. 19th.

Edward A. Jones identified a card case that he took from the vest pocket of Davis at the time the body was brought to the undertaking rooms.

Ora A. Bowker testified that at 1:15 in the morning of Sept. 27th he heard two shots. He was certain of the time because he looked at his clock by means of his flash light. In a very short time he heard an auto pass but saw no reflection of the lights in his room.

Judge Harrie L. Webber made the opening for the defence, and the first signs of emotion of the respondent were shown during the setting forth of the case by Judge Webber when he broke down and wept.

Among the witnesses for the defendant Myron Maxim testified in regard to the kind of revolver was used; Mrs. Fannie Eastman in regard to the trip to Portland and the auto from Holden's with Pratt as chauffeur and Edward Hubbard of South Paris testified that they stopped at his camp on that trip.

Charles Edwards told of meeting and passing Pratt on the road when he was on his way to Canton in the week of Sept. 21st. Wright A. Bisbee of Canton told of seeing a popcorn arrangement come onto the fair grounds at Canton where he was superintendent.

Charles W. Bowker testified to the weather on that particular day. Ellory O. Emmons of Portland said he had known Davis two years before his disappearance and that on the morning of Sept. 28th, Wright A. Bisbee of Canton anyone would get to Dixfield, and said he was going there that afternoon. That was the last time he saw Davis.

Dwight Edwards of Auburn, Alton Snell and B. A. Jordan of Mechanic Falls, testified the auto was the same as when bought except for new tires and a little wear.

J. H. Stuart, Engineer showed and explained a map of the roads in the vicinity. Mrs. James Kenney testified she had heard shots in her vicinity but was unable to specify the night.

Sept. 28th of September she was in Lewiston and the 27th in Upton.

William Bray of South Paris said that he and some other boys owned a camp in the vicinity of the Bowker residence, and that they were there most every night during September.

J. H. Stuart was recalled Friday morning to point out locations on Nichols street near the Bowker residence.

George Eastman, South Paris, testified to a trip that he took to Lovell on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 20th, with some friends in Pratt's auto with Pratt driving the machine. Pratt owed him $3 and he took this means for him to pay the bill.

Alfred C. Maxim of South Paris, the grain dealer rebuilt his mill last fall and on Oct. 23rd was the first time he paid out money for hauling rocks.

Crockett Records of South Paris, a farmer, lives 3-4 of a mile from South Paris and passes George Bowker's road several times a day and claimed he found the felt one day while walking down the road.

On cross examination he stated he did not know how long it had been lying in the road but found it the first time when walking along there, still it was possible to have there some time. He could not specify any particular time in October when he had passed that way except on every Friday evening, and thought that it was possible that he might pass both morning and evening and not see it. He said he frequently heard shots in the vicinity of Nichols street but not at 1 o'clock in the morning.

Prescott Pratt took the stand. In the process of questioning he said that he would be 24 years old the 10th of April. He lived in South Paris with his mother and brother, Albert Pratt, although his mother frequently went out to work and at present was in Poland. He had not worked a great deal away from home. When a boy he attended the primary school and went to the brick school for a while, and after his father died went to work for J. A. Kenney at the mill. He has also worked for Henry Holden, where he earned $5 a week and had what tips were given him.

He told of the trip to Lovell with Mr. Eastman the first Sunday after the fair. The next day he went to Canton to carry a peanut machine for Mr. Holden with a light and a dark horse and returned that night getting back at 5 o'clock in the morning, Sept. 22, and the next day slept in Holden's office. He finished working for Holden because of some misunderstanding on Saturday morning when he was paid $1.25. That Saturday morning he went to Berlin, N. H., to get some rum for himself he claimed.

On reaching there he went to a restaurant, got dinner, bought a gallon of liquor, put it in his dress suit case, and put a pint in his pocket. On coming down the street a man was standing on the corner and as he came along said, "You look as though your suit case was heavy." He replied that it was and in the course of the conversation asked him if he had anything to drink and where he was going. He told him he had some whisky and that he was going to South Paris. This man was George W. Davis, he had an auto, was coming down that way and that he could ride, and he accepted the invitation. At the time Davis did not have his auto with him but went and got it and he got in. Davis drove the machine and he (Pratt) sat on the front seat and put his suit case in the back seat. On the way they stopped at Gorham and got some more liquor under the hotel and came on from Gorham to South Paris, through Bethel and by way of the Pine Woods.

At his house Davis stopped the auto and asked if he was alone, and Pratt told him he was. Davis went off and on leaving said he might be back. Pratt went into the house, put the liquor in the cupboard and laid down on the couch. In about a half hour there was a rap on the door. He asked who it was and the reply came, "You know who it is." He opened the door and Davis and Mrs. Clara Cutting came in.

A bottle of liquor was on the table and Davis took a drink. In a short time, with permission from Pratt, Davis and the woman went up stairs. Pratt went into the front room and laid down in a half hour or so heard a shot and he got up and went into the kitchen. Mrs. Cutting was in the kitchen, and she said "I have killed that fellow up stairs." He immediately went up stairs to see if it was so. He shook him with no response. He then picked his pockets and took $180 claiming the woman told him it was there. He took $100 and the woman $20 there. The woman left. He then dragged the body in the early morning under the barn.

When Anybody Finds a Cure He Is Generally Willing To Tell His Neighbor

¶ The willingness of one neighbor to tell another neighbor in a private way of the benefit received from Peruna, explains the popularity of Peruna more than all the advertising that has been done.

¶ The fear of the publicity undoubtedly prevents the majority of such people from writing a testimonial to be used in the newspaper. But in spite of that we are receiving fine testimonials continually.

ANEMIA—Mrs. F. A. DeWitt, Marengo, Ohio, says: "I believe Peruna to be the best tonic. I recommend it for any run-down condition of the system."

SPRING COLDS—Mrs. Rhoda Stufflebeam, Bunch, Iowa: "A spring cold I took settled on my lungs. Coughed. Could not sleep. We feared consumption. Thanks to Peruna I am a well woman today."

CATARH—Mrs. Sadie Allen, Joseph, Oregon: "My little boy is entirely cured of catarrh of the ears by Peruna. Am thankful for your good advice."

SPRING TONIC—Mrs. Wm. McRoberts, Brown Valley, Minn.: "Taken in spring Peruna tones up the system, acts as a tonic. I consider Peruna a whole family medicine chest."

¶ How did they hear of Peruna?

¶ Simply because one neighbor is always willing to tell another one he has found a cure. Neighborly conversation of grateful patients has done more for Peruna than advertising. Much more.

The Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

He took the auto out Sunday. He went to Eastman's and got a suit of clothes as testified to. He said it was about two weeks after that that he saw Clara Cutting and she asked him what he did with the body. Shortly after she came there to stay, and after a while Hiram Cummings came there to stay.

Mrs. Cutting told him one day that Cummings found the body, and to tell him about it, and he told him. Cummings threatened to tell of it because he was jealous of Mrs. Cutting and Prescott.

The night before he was arrested he and Clara held a conversation and she said she was going home to stay as it was getting near court time and it might be easier for her to get a bill, and she packed her trunk. Pratt didn't want her to leave him so she decided to stay. There was no talk of notifying the officers.

He said he traded the watch as testified, traded the automobile with Dwight Edwards at Auburn as testified and had some money after the Davis trouble.

He said he went to Lewiston Monday with Woodbury Thayer, and while there he bought the revolver he later gave to Eva Dudley. He left the number plate with his brother as testified.

On cross examination in reply to questions from Attorney General W. H. Pottenger, Pratt claimed he did not know Mrs. Clara Cutting until that night, had seen her around the town. This night they came before mid-night, and he was introduced to her. There had never been any conversation between them until that night up stairs after the shooting. The man he claimed was lying across the bed fully dressed with the bullet shots in the head.

He said he took the money from him, gave it to Mrs. Cutting and she returned it. She had $20 of it. The next morning he took the watch from the body in the barn. He showed the money to the Herseys and never told them he got it gambling.

In talking with Frothingham he said he did not remember of telling him a different story. The revolver used was one he had laid on the stand that morning after getting back from Holden's to stay. It was later put in Mrs. Cutting's trunk. In Auburn he gave the name of Charles Cash at the suggestion of Thayer. He claimed he had never had any trouble with Mrs. Cutting, and they planned to marry. She never gave him any reason for the killing. Claimed he was not sure whether he told Cummings or not.

He claimed Davis didn't say he was coming to see any one. He said he told these other stories about it for fear of being suspected because it happened at his house, and he did not want to get Mrs. Cutting into trouble. He claimed she told him she had met Davis at the fair. They both put the gloves on the dead man's hands but he alone put the body under the barn.

Mrs. Cutting was recalled to the stand and said she never knew Davis and was not at the Pratt house until Nov. 10, and never knew that she was suspected of the murder and was on good terms with Pratt.

The evidence all in the pleadings commenced. Hon. Alton C. Wheeler presented his side of the case for the defendant in a very able and eloquent manner, setting forth the claims and the admissions of the defendant, and comparing the stories and the facts in the case.

The State's side was plead by Attorney W. H. Pottenger. Mr. Pottenger presented the facts and the circumstances in the case in deliberation on the different points at issue in a plain and easy manner.

The Judge's charge to the jury was of its usual order, setting forth the points of law as surrounds a trial of this nature and defining the different terms, and the degrees of murder.

The jury were out for 40 minutes and returned a verdict of "Guilty of Murder." When Pratt was being led to his cell he was over heard to remark, "Clara Cutting didn't do it."

While Pratt was on his way to the prison he told that he went to Portland, Sept. 25, purchased a revolver and fired George W. Davis to take him to South Paris the next morning. He wanted an automobile to set up as a taxi driver in Portland where a certain woman would follow him if he would get a permanent job there. He claims that he and Davis drove to South Paris by way of Portland where he applied for job at the bottling department. Near the Stanton turn a quarrel followed and Pratt says that he shot Davis in the first clump of woods after leaving the turn. After getting into the auto he got into the back seat, and it was from there he did the shooting.

Pratt has told nearly a dozen stories of the crime. It is thought the truth of the affair has not been learned yet. (Continued on Page 6).

a fellow really feel foolish after he's used toe-eating salves, corn-biting ointments,

"Blue Ribbon at the Maine Corn and Fruit Show."
"I used about 1200 lbs. of Lowell Fertilizer on acre and raised potatoes on wet ground, with no other manure or fertilizer, and raised a fine crop. In fact, I was given the Blue Ribbon at the Maine Corn and Fruit Show. These potatoes were the 'Early Surprise,' which matured two or three weeks earlier than the 'Green Mountain' planted in the same field. With the right seed and the right fertilizer, like Lowell Potato Grower, no one will be disappointed."

Write for our free booklet. It gives a guaranteed analysis of every brand of Lowell Animal Fertilizers and is full of information as to fertilization for all crops.

GREENWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Cole held their forty-fifth wedding anniversary at Greenwood Hall, Saturday evening, Mar. 20th. Relatives and friends took dinner with them at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. There were about sixty guests present in the evening. Only one of that number, Edgar Morgan, having attended the wedding reception, forty-five years ago. There were many fine gifts. Among them was a beautiful rocker presented by the sons and daughters.

There are four children in Mr. Cole's family, Fred J. Cole and Mrs. Charles Swan, both of Greenwood, Stillman R. Cole and Mrs. F. H. Maxfield, both of Portland. They were all present. The hall was very beautifully decorated with white crepe paper and evergreen intermingled with silver and gold decorations of bells, stars and roses. The crepe paper was held in place with bunches of yellow and white chrysanthemums, red roses and silver stars. White bells were suspended from arches of greenery upon which were the dates 1870-1915 in gold. The work was under the direction of Mrs. W. O. Emmmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole are a well known and much beloved couple. They have been prominent in the church and other good work.

Gladys Frost of Norway is visiting friends and relatives this week. Mr. and Mrs. George Emmmons are rejoicing over the birth of a ten pound boy. Mrs. Joseph Cummings is caring for Mrs. Emmmons.

The Greenwood base ball team has organized for the coming season. Llewellyn Emmmons is manager, Roscoe Doughty, captain. The manager is ready to fill dates for games. Llewellyn Emmmons went to Norway, Friday evening, for the initiation of charter members of the lodge, "The Loyal Order of Moose."

Patch Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. Randall Herriek were in Norway, Monday. L. S. Herriek was in West Paris one day recently.

Municipal Building and Court House For Rumford Falls.

A bill was introduced in the Legislature last week, which if it passes will allow the building of a several thousand dollars structure at Rumford to accommodate the need of the town and the requirements of the County for court purposes.

The bill as drawn authorizes the County commissioner to pay over to the municipal officers of Rumford $25,000 for that part of the construction of the building. The commissioners are to issue interest bearing notes on bonds for the raising of the money.

Rumford has authority to raise in a similar manner a sum not to exceed $45,000.00 provided their debt limit is not exceeded.

The bill is to have free use of that portion of the building intended for their use so long as the same may be used by the county.

It is understood the Oxford County delegation at Augusta has agreed to the above bill and it will probably become a law. Some amendments have been suggested as to the manner of paying over the money which will not materially change the bill.

The County will have a suitable room in which to hold the May term of Supreme Court, Probate Court, Municipal Court with Judge's chamber, jury rooms, and a police station with suitable cells for the use of the sheriff and his deputies, etc.

WILSON'S MILLS. F. A. Hatch was an over Sunday guest at E. S. Bennett's.

The Ladies' Aid met with Mrs. N. R. Leigh on Wednesday, sixteen present. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all refreshments of cocoa, sandwiches, cake and tartlets served.

Our public spirited townsmen have the past week cut and hauled wood for the grange, town halls and the church. The fraternal spirit evinced is in every way commendable.

Mrs. Jane Buckman, who has been to Auburn to visit her parents, has returned home.

The annual town meeting March 15, resulted in the following choice of officers for Lincoln Plantation:

Moderator—R. S. Bennett.
1st Assessor—Clinton Bennett.
2nd Assessor—Clinton Bennett.
3rd Assessor—Clinton Bennett.
Clerk—Lewis Olson.
Treasurer—John Olson.
Col.—D. C. Bennett.
School Board—E. S. Bennett.
Toll—Lawrence Littlefield.
Fire Warden—A. W. Hart.

"COME HOME TO DINNER WITH ME"

"No, thank you. Can't eat with any comfort now."

"What? Haven't you heard about Dys-pep-tics? Nothing for sour stomach, distress, heartburn and all indigestion."

"Do you guarantee them?"

"I certainly do on my own experience and that of many friends. All right! I'll come and enjoy a good meal once more."

Dys-pep-tics are making fast friends of all who try them.
